Lexington, KY, June 13, 2008 --- LexArts announces a new exhibit opening Friday, June 20 at the ArtsPlace Gallery. The exhibit will open with a Gallery Hop reception from 5 – 8 pm and run through July 30, 2008. Gallery hours are Monday through Friday 9 am to 5 pm and Saturday from 10 am to 4 pm.

Vacation Magic is the work of local artist R. Clint Colburn. The concept of the artist's work is best defined by an individual's constant journey toward understanding the manifestation of latent psychological content and the obscurities of the unknown within the subconscious mind. This journey is fueled by an obsession for discovering one's truest form of identity- an identity not merely contrived by self-manipulated past experiences, but one made by awareness and acceptance of the present. This is achieved by an intuitive, non-formulaic process of making art. Colburn's art expresses an ingenuity of imagination through representation of identity and philosophical ideology. His work strives to create an environment in which the work can exist without limitations.

About LexArts

LexArts is a non-profit community organization that works for the development of a strong and vibrant arts community as a means of enhancing the quality of life in Central Kentucky. LexArts provides a wide range of programs designed to integrate the arts into our daily lives. Through its annual Campaign for the Arts, LexArts has raised millions of dollars in support of local arts. In turn, LexArts underwrites the operating expenses for a variety of beneficiary organizations, offers affordable exhibition and performance space for arts organizations, as well as competitive grants for community outreach projects. Visit LexArts website at www.lexarts.org.

LexArts programs and services are supported in part by the Kentucky Arts Council, a state agency in the Commerce Cabinet, with support from the National Endowment for the Arts. Major support is provided by the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government.
